MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTS MANUAL

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Management Accounts Manual has been produced in accordance with the National Pensions Act, 2008 (Act 766) and also in line with the new flow in the Oracle Financial System and Operational Business Suite (OBS). The manual was produced with the collaborative efforts of the following personalities from the Management Accounts Department:

1. Mrs. Esther Asamoah-Frimpong
2. Mr. Emmanuel Yobo Abankwa
3. Mr. Emmanuel Boakye-Yiadom Amoako-Boateng

The manual was subjected to thorough editing, formatting and complete review by the underlisted personalities in the Risk and Quality Management Department:

1. Mr. Theophilus K. Afenya
2. Mrs. Sena Kpeto-Kumadie
3. Mr. Samuel Ofosu
4. Mr. Eric Odoom

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to Mr. Michael Addo, DDG (F&A) for providing the impetus, strategic direction and moral support to complete the Manual in good time.

We also want to commend the following persons for their special support;

1. Mr. Samuel Dagadu – Ag. Area Manager, Koforidua Area
2. Mrs. Bervelyn Irene Owusu-Nti – Branch Manager, Koforidua

The efforts of the above-mentioned members of staff are very much appreciated for the successful review of the Management Accounts Manual.

THEOPHILUS K. AFENYA
(RISK MANAGER)

SOCIAL SECURITY & NATIONAL INSURANCE TRUST

MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTS MANUAL

1.0 INTRODUCTION

The finances of the Social Security & National Insurance Trust (SSNIT) are handled by eight (8) separate Departments including the Management Accounts Department (MAD). These departments report to the General Manager, Finance. This Manual presents all the detailed activities undertaken by the Management Accounts Department in the fulfilment of their core mandate to the Trust.

1.1 OBJECTIVES OF THE MANUAL

The objectives of the Manual are to:

- i. Provide records of documented procedures of work schedules to assist departmental staff in the discharge of their duties;
- ii. Define functional responsibilities that accompany work schedules; and
- iii. Serve as a resource material for training of old staff and carry out orientation for newly engaged accounting staff.

1.2 SCOPE OF THE MANUAL

This Manual is a written record of all procedures and processes of activities to guide the departmental staff in the discharge of their duties and to serve as a training material for training Management Accounts staff, especially newly engaged accounts staff.

The Manual details out the activities and processes that go into the following:-

- i. Budget Preparation;
- ii. Budget Control; and
- iii. Financial Analysis.

In addition, detailed flowcharts for performing all the activities have been included.

1.3 MANUAL REVIEW DATE

This manual is expected to undergo a review by December 2022, as stipulated in the dictates of the Trust's Policy on procedural working manual reviews. Notwithstanding this stated timeline, the manual may be subjected to Administrative, Policy and Technical reviews as and when there are any such directive(s) gazetted by the Executive Committee on operational procedures.

Hence, the proposed time for review could be earlier or later, depending on the rate of change of the Statutes, Policies and Working Procedures within the Trust.

1.4 FUNCTIONS OF THE MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTS DEPARTMENT

The core mandate of the MAD is to prepare, review and analyse the Trust's budget and overall performance of the various offices in terms of their inputs (costs) and their outputs (performance) in accordance with the Trust's stated objectives of collecting contributions and paying out pensions in a sustained manner. By function, the MAD accumulates, classifies, stores, reports and interprets cost and revenue data to provide Management with useful information to aid the formulation of decisions and policies.

The MAD uses responsibility accounting and standard costing practice to control expenses incurred by cost centres and reports generally to Management, the performance of cost centres and the Trust as a whole.
